

This Issue's Challenge:

Donate to the Maleton family

Could you imagine losing your house, car, toys, TV, and clothes? Well that's what happened to the Maleton family when Hurricane Sandy hit their house. Go online to:

https://www.fundraise.com/joan-klucinec/maleton-family-storm-sandy-relief-fund?utm_source=email&utm_medium=f&utm_campaign=ICy4&utm_content= to donate. Of course, get your parents' permission first.

Want to get a fun prize? All you have to do is perform all of the challenges in the 2013 issues, print, and cut out the square on the bottom corner (one per issue) and send the six squares along with the form that will be available in the Dec. 2013 issue, to the address on the submissions page
